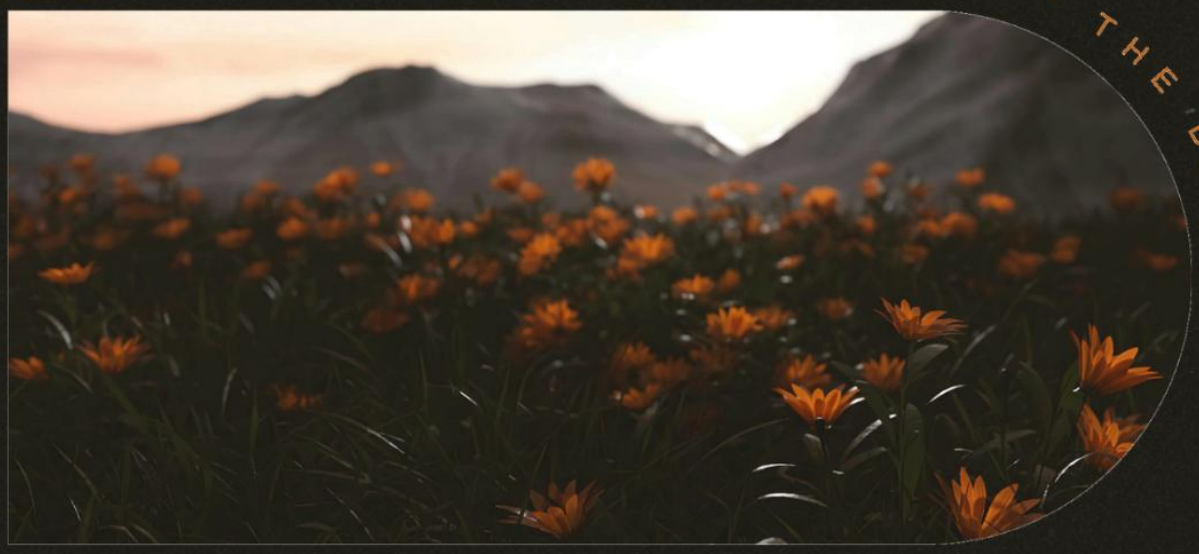
THE BLESSING * THE BLESSING * THE BLESSING



THE BLESSING

Know that you are blessed

Philippians 4:19 (KJV 1900)
19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Reason for This Prayer Guide

If you're reading this, it means you've made it. By his grace God has allowed you to see another month it is now March. Thank God for bringing you this far. Hopefully prayers in February will help you power through and we want to keep the train rolling. I am convinced that prayer is the breeding ground for breakthroughs.

This month as you pray, we want you to be reminded that you are blessed. I know you may not feel like it, I know it may not look like it, but you are, the reason I'm so confident that you are blessed, even without knowing your situation, it's because I know what the word of the lord says, if you're his child then you are blessed.

Just because you may have not received the blessing, doesn't mean that God hasn't blessed you. To be blessed means that God has decreed good will and good fortune over your life; remember whenever God speaks, his words come to life, whatever he says, his words take action to make it happen. If God said it, it will happen.

The key is understanding how to receive what God has given. The key to receiving God's blessing is following God's direction. Sometimes God will send us a blessing, but most of the time, he will lead us into the blessing as we follow him. If you want your blessing, now is the time to recommit to following God fully, it's not too late.

We are praying for the blessings of God to flood and overtake your life. As you position yourself for new blessings, we want to help you pray over the blessings that you have already received, so get ready to pray, and get ready to be blessed.

How to Use This Prayer Guide

Using this prayer guide is simple, there is a scripture and prayer for each day in March. Each day you will read the scripture and then recite the prayer. Use the prayer as a starting point. Add to the prayer as the spirit leads you.

Take some time to reflect on the scripture and the prayer, think about the things that you can do better, think about the areas where you struggle and ask God for help. Think about what you can do differently, ask God to help you develop a passion.

I look forward to the testimony of what God is going to do in the month of march. I believe lives will be changed and transformed through our prayers; deliverance will take place, faith will be restored, and miracles will be manifested. As you receive blessings remember your obligation to be a blessing to others, to God be the glory.

God Keeps

Numbers 6:24–26 (KJV 1900) [24] The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: [25] The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: [26] The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, thank you for a new day, new grace, and new mercy, help us as we seek to live out this day in agreement and fellowship with you. Father, we thank you for your goodwill towards us. We thank you for all the promised blessings that you have spoken over our lives. Your intention towards us is prosperity and good fortune. The scripture says that part of our blessing is that you keep us. You guard us, you protect us, you watch over us. Father, we thank you for your covering, thank you for fighting for us, and teaching us how to defend ourselves. Thank you for defending us against our enemies, spiritual and natural. Father, send your holy angels to protect us against the schemes and the plots of the enemy. We ask you to bind the enemy, break all ties and access that the enemy has gained in our lives. Teach us how to abide under your protection, in Jesus' name amen.

God Shines

Numbers 6:25 (Kjv) [25] The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven we come to you with thanksgiving in our hearts. It is a pleasure and a privilege that we can be in relationship with you and have fellowship with you. Thank you for giving us access to your presence. We recognize you as the lord of our lives, we submit to your wisdom, authority and leadership. Lord, we are seeking your guidance, we ask you to lead us along the path of blessings. Father, stir up within us a passion to be drawn closer to you, for we know the greatest blessings are not to receive what comes from your hand but to see your face. We want to see you in new ways that we haven't seen you before. The bible says your face shines with glory, we pray that glory rubs off on us, we want others to sense and see that we have been in your presence, may your light on our lives help draw others closer to you, may they partake in the same grace we received; In Jesus' name amen.

Gods Peace

Numbers 6:24–26 (KJV 1900)[26] The Lord lifts up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we honor you as our creator, your word says that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. That you have made us in your image and likeness. Thank you for making us like you so that we can be in relationship with you. Thank you for blessing us with the likeness of your qualities. Lord we are asking you to look upon our situation. We know that you see, hear, and know all things and nothing is impossible for you. One of the many blessings that you promise us is peace. Father, we pray for peace with you, help us to realize and get rid of anything in our lives that is in opposition to you. We pray for the settling of our soul, mind, and spirit, speak into our heart a word of assurance; help us address and resolve every issue that's causing a disruption in our peace. Father, it's not your will for us to be worried, so we ask you to flood our hearts with a wave of peace, in Jesus' name amen.

Endurance

James 1:12 (KJV 1900)[12] Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, by your revelation we recognize that you are good and every good thing comes from you. After you created the world, you said it was good. Because you are a good God, you also want what's good for us. Thank you for treating us Good. You have been better to us than we have been to ourselves. Father, thank you for reminding us that many of our blessings are tied to our obedience. We realize that being obedient is not always easy, obedience requires us to fight against wickedness. Even though you are good, and working things out for our good, sometimes it is a hard path to get to the good. But we are confident because you said if we stick with you, if we endure, we'll make it through, will reach our promise land and receive our reward, you will place a crown on the heads of those who love you, just like you promised you would, in Jesus' name amen.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, you are worthy of all the praise, it is our heart's desire to submit our lives to you, fully without compromise. We want it to be true when we say that you alone sit on the throne of our hearts. There is no one like you, and there is no one who deserves our loyalty more than you. Father, we realize that we are blessed, because we put our trust in you. Our faith is a declaration that we trust you to be the source of all of our blessings, What the world offers cannot be compared to the blessing of your favor. Father you are the reason for our expectation and hope. You are the reason we believe all things are possible, that all things are working for our good. You are the reason we are not worried when the odds are stacked against us, or when the enemy surrounds us, we trust you to save and deliver us, we trust you to bless us with an eternity of joy and peace. In Jesus name amen.

Kingdom Blessings

Matthew 5:3(KJV 1900)[3] Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we are comforted by the fact that the earth is the lord and the fullness thereof, you made the world and everything in it, and it all belongs to you. Everything that you have created is under your control and subject to you. This is why we have hope and expectations; we know that you can take a poor man and make him rich. Whatever we need, we know you've got it in abundant supply. Father you are so good, because you are a giving God, you want us to share in all the riches of your kingdom. Because we are your children you have given us an inheritance among the things that you have created. Thank you for showing us that humility is how we become part of your family. You resist the proud, but you help the humble. You have designated us to become kings and queens in your kingdom. Thank you, father, for the blessing of being a part of your kingdom, in Jesus' name amen.

Comfort Blessing

Matthew 5:4 (KJV 1900)[4] Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, thank you for being a source of comfort for us, life can get hard sometimes, but you told us that trouble won't last always, that weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning. You also assured us that you would never leave or forsake us, and that you are a present help in the time of trouble. Father, you are the source of strength; you are the reason we can hold on to hope when things feel hopeless. Your word is the anchor of our soul that keeps us from tossing to and fro. We know that we are blessed not because we never have a reason to mourn, it is because when we do mourn, you have promised to be there to comfort us. Father, thank you for being our warm blanket, our hot cup of tea. You know everything to do, to soothe our souls and put us at ease. Thank you for carrying us through every hard obstacle in life, in Jesus' name we pray amen.

March 8th

Inheritance Blessing

Matthew 5:5 (KJV 1900)[5] Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, thank you for your mercy and grace. Thank you for your compassion and kindness. Thank you for your love and long suffering. Thank you for the gentle way you manage us. Thank you for all the times that you could have destroyed us, but you chose to restore us instead. Father, we praise you forgiving us what we need instead of what we deserve. We praise you for your amazing generosity. Father, forgive us for using most of our time, attention, and energy, trying to obtain things in the world. The times we allowed ourselves to be led by our lust, without any self-control. Your word helps us realize that if we humble ourselves, use the talents, gifts, and strengths that you have given us to serve you, all the things that we want from this world will be added to our lives. Father, the earth is yours, and you will share it with all those who are submitted to you. In Jesus name we pray.

March 9th

Your Fulfillment

Matthew 5:6 (KJV 1900)[6] Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for giving us new purpose and meaning for life. Our focus used to be on pleasing ourselves, but now we know our desire should be to please you. The reason we don't have certain things is because we have not asked you, and sometimes we don't receive because we ask you for the wrong thing. Father, we confess that at times our focus and our priorities have been misguided. We were seeking the things that made us feel good, instead of the things that would help us live good and become good disciples. Thank you for reminding us that what we should be hungry for the most is righteousness; our greatest desire should be to do right by you by following your commandments. Father, give us a desire for righteousness, help us to experience the blessing of being fully satisfied as a result of our service to you, in Jesus' name we pray amen.

March 10th

Your Mercy

Matthew 5:7 (KJV 1900)[7] Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, your word says that we can approach your throne with confidence, and expect to receive mercy and find help in our time of need. The reason we can come boldly is not because we've been so good; not because we did everything we were told, not because we earned it or deserve it. We can have confidence because of who you are, you have been and continue to be merciful to your people. Thank you for reminding us that mercy is reciprocal, that in order to receive it, we must be willing to give it. We realize that the mercy we need from you is the same mercy that others need from us. Your word helps us to understand that the way to get what we need is to give away what we want. Father, help us to develop a mindset of mercy, so we can give it to everyone who needs it, so that when we need mercy from you, we are also in the position to receive it. In Jesus name we pray amen.

March 11th

Your Heart

Matthew 5:8 (KJV 1900) [8] Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we acknowledge the creative and performative power of your word. You said let there be light and there was light. The words you speak will come to fruition and come into existence. Father it is our desire to have a clean heart. We live in a dark and wicked world; there are so many things that can contaminate our hearts. We are exposed to so many impurities; we have been affected and infected. Father, we need your help to get our hearts clean. We need you to x-ray our hearts and identify all the uncleanness, apply your holy filter, drain out all the things that keep us sick and stuck. Remove the things that are keeping us from giving our hearts fully to you. We don't want anything in our hearts that will keep us from seeing you. Father, whatever you speak will come true, if you speak over our hearts, it will be clean because of the words you have spoken. In Jesus name amen.

March 12th

Your peace

Matthew 5:9 (KJV 1900)[9] Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for your love, care, and your protection. Your words say, touch not my anointed, and do my prophet no harm. Lord, we thank you for the precious gift of peace. You promised to give us peace that surpasses all understanding. You said all we have to do is keep our minds stayed on you. Your word teaches us that we have to become what we desire, if we want peace in our lives, we have to become peace makers. Father, we are so thankful that you've given us the ability to make peace with you. Through Jesus, you reconciled us to yourself. Father, help us spread and share the peace that you allow us to experience as your children. Thank you for the calming and settling presence of your holy spirit. Father, we ask you to speak into the souls that are overcome and overrun with chaos, calm the raging sea of their hearts and minds, in Jesus' name amen.

March 13th

Your Reward

Matthew 5:10 (KJV 1900)[10] Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we're thankful that you have made us more than conquerors. Your word says no weapon formed against us shall prosper. You said our enemies will come at us one way and flee from us seven ways. Father, you told us that in this world we will have trouble, but that we would overcome that trouble, in tough times remind us that trouble don't last always. Were thankful that in due time you will deliver us from all those who persecute us; we trust you to bind the strong man. We know that you are stronger than any enemy or opposition we face. Father, when we get weak, we trust you to renew our strength and to strengthen our resolve to keep living the right way, and doing the right thing, even when it's evil spoken of. We know heaven is the reward of those who persevere, father thank you for helping us to hold on and stick it out, we can't do it without you, in Jesus' name amen.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for sending your son Jesus not only to die for us, but to also show us how to live in fellowship with you. Your word says that Jesus learned obedience through the things that he suffered. Jesus committed no sin, yet he submitted himself to persecution, just so he could save us. Thank you for letting us know there is a bigger purpose for the things you allow us to go through. We're also thankful for your promise that you would not put more on us than we can bear. Father, thank you for teaching us how to deal with those who oppose your will. Thank you, Lord, for hardening our faith so that we don't stop being witnesses for you because someone speaks badly and tells lies about us. Thank you for helping us develop a spirit of perseverance and persistence, you died for our sakes, so help us as we endure for yours, we ask all this in the name of Jesus we pray amen.

We are confident that you will lead us to a place of prosperity when we make your word our priority; thank you for teaching us the importance of scrutinizing who we allow to give us counsel; help us as we seek to quiet the voices in our lives that seem louder than yours. Blessed word

Luke 11:28 (KJV 1900)[28] But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for our lord and savior Jesus Christ, we thank you for his birth, crucifixion, resurrection, ascension and his impending return. Everyone who believes in Jesus is blessed with the gift of salvation. The greatest blessing that we can receive is the word of the gospel that sets us free from sin and restores our fellowship with you, our creator. Everyone who is saved has received a word from you. Father, you showed up to reveal that you love us, that before we were in our mothers' wombs, you knew us, and you anointed us, and ordained us for service unto you. You've given us your word that you will never leave us nor forsake us. You've given us your word that you will supply all of our needs; thank you for giving us the faith and the strength to keep trusting and following the word you have given us, help us hold on to your blessing and your word, in Jesus' name amen.

Blessed of Forgiveness

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for your love and kindness, we are so grateful for your patience and your long suffering. You told us we can come to you for help when we're in trouble. Father, we realize that in many cases we are the cause of our own trouble. We've been hardheaded, ignorant, or just made a bunch of bad choices. Your mercy is our saving grace; because of your love we have the opportunity to recover from our mistakes. When we deserve handcuffs, you give us a hug instead. Instead of condemning us you encourage us to get back up and try it again. Your forgiveness is way more valuable than any house, car, or career that we can get. It doesn't profit anything to gain the world and lose our soul, Jesus thank you for loving our soul enough to die for our sins, thank you for not holding our sins against us when we repent and seek your forgiveness; In Jesus' name, amen.

March 19th

Future Blessings

Job 42:12 (KJV 1900)[12] So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, you are God all by yourself, there is no one like you; you see and know all things. We honor and bless you for your sovereignty and your majesty. Thank you, Jesus, for being the author and the finisher of our faith. Father, you have already revealed that at the end of the story we win; that in you we have the victory. We can be of good cheer because you have overcome the world. Father, as you know, life can be extremely difficult, we go through seasons of brokenness and hardship. It seems like every time we take a step forward in faith, we get knocked ten steps back. It seems like a lot more weeping nights than Joyful mornings. However, the life of Job shows us that it only takes one day for you to restore all that has been lost, father we are trusting you to make our latter better than our beginning, we trust and believe that you have more in store, in Jesus' name amen.

Continued Blessing

It is by the power of your word that you created heaven and the earth; it is by the power of your word that your blessings manifest in our lives. It is by the power of your word that the enemy must flee. Father, you told us that we must be doers of the word not Just hearers of the word. You said the race is not given to the swift but to the one who endures. Father, we want to deepen our understanding of the word, help us as we seek to develop a hunger and thirst for greater revelation, we realize that some things will only be revealed when we search deeper for them. We pray that we will keep and carry out the revelation that we have received, father don't allow us to forget our assignment or our call, help us to continue in the good works that have been entrusted to us, in Jesus' name, amen.

We pray that you will assign someone with your wisdom to our lives, to help and support us along this journey of faith; help us to discern any conflicting companionships, people that are pushing us towards our destruction instead of our destiny. You sent Jesus so that we could have life and have it more abundantly, we know it's your will for us to have joy, and for our joy to be full. You don't just want us to have Joy; you want us to be full of Joy. Thank you for showing us that the path to joy and happiness starts with wisdom. Forgive us for thinking that getting more things will bring us more Joy, that we would be much happier if we could get a bigger house or newer car. However now we see through your words that more happiness comes with more wisdom, the wiser we are the happier we will become. You are so loving and you have called us to be an extension of that love. Your word tells us not to just look out for our own interest; but to look out for the interest of others as well. You told us to love our neighbors as ourselves. Lord forgive us for the times we looked out just for ourselves and forgot about our neighbors, we showed indifference instead of pity. Because you are glorified by our good work, we want to help as many people as possible. Promised Blessing

Joshua 21:43–45 (KJV 1900)[43] And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. [44] And the Lord gave them rest round about, … [45] There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we agree with Paul testimony when he said, I know in whom I have believed and that he is able to carry out and keep his word just as he promised. Like Paul we confess that we trust you with our life, for there is no one who can preserve it and protect it like you. Lord you are not a man that you should lie, heaven and earth will pass away before your word fails. We have comfort and peace knowing that you always keep your word, you watch over your word to perform it. Father, you didn't allow Israel's unfaithfulness to stop you from keeping your word, even though they didn't deserve it; we ask for the same grace, if we have disqualified ourselves from the things you have promised, we pray that your faithfulness will override our failures, that your grace will cause us to recover, redeem, reclaim and take hold of our promise land. In Jesus name amen.

Above Blessing

James 1:16–17 (KJV 1900)[6] Do not err, my beloved brethren. [17] Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, forgive us for all the times and ways that we held back your praise, when we fail to show proper appreciation, and give you the credit for the blessing in our lives. Instead of getting on our knees, we're patting ourselves on the back. We were throwing parties in our honor instead of praising your name. Your word tells us that without you we can do nothing. Every accomplishment that we claim would have never happened without you, you are a partner in all of our prosperity. You gave us life, you gave us ability, and opportunity, you gave us the time and the mind. We can't breathe air without you, everything that we can do is the result of what you've already done. We recognize and appreciate that you are the source of all good things, and we never what to give your credit to anyone else, may we always remember it all belongs to you. In Jesus' name amen.

Saved Blessing

Ephesians 2:8–9 (KJV 1900)[8] For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: [9] Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we thank you for being so generous with us, your word tells us that you are rich in grace and glory. You have enough to give everyone as much as they need and still have an infinite amount left over. Your grace is so amazing, because it is what we need the most, but what we least deserve. Yet you give it freely to all those who ask. Salvation is like the air we breathe, we don't make the air, we just breathe it in, in the same way we don't save ourselves we just take it in. It's not about what we've done, it's about what we've been given. We didn't earn salvation we simply received it. Father, just as great as the gift is the reason for the gift, you gave it to us because you love us and want us to have it. Father, help us reflect on the gift of salvation, help us to be refueled and inspired by the memory of how you have loved us with everlasting love. In Jesus name we pray amen.

Giving Blessing

2 Corinthians 9:7–8 (KJV 1900)[7] Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. [8] And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we want to thank you for every blessing, pass, present and future. We pray that the more time we spend with you, the more we will become like you. We pray that your loving kindness will rub off on us. We want to be people that are after your own heart. Father, help us as we make the determination in our heart to be givers like you. You said freely we have received, freely we should give. Thank you for changing the way we see giving, it's not a loss, or a pain, it's a joy. It is a joy when we do what you love, and you love when we give the way you do, lovingly and cheerfully. Father, we know you love to provide for your children, that's why you told us to come to you with all of our requests, to make all our wishes and desires known unto you. Father remind us, that when we give with a cheerful heart, you will make sure we have sufficiency in all things, In Jesus name amen.

Seed Blessing

2 Corinthians 9:10 (KJV 1900)[10] Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

Holy Spirit, help us to pray, father in heaven, we recognize you as our sustenance, source, and supply, all good things come from you. The earth is yours and the fulness there of. You own a thousand cattle on a hill. We know that all of our help comes from you. Father, we thank you for the process of productivity and prosperity. Thank you for giving us everything we need to produce a harvest and gain prosperity. You have given us good ground and good seeds, so that when we sow, we can expect it to grow. Thank you for reminding us that when we follow your process, we can expect expansion. When we do it your way, you will cause increase and multiplication to happen. Thank you, Lord, for enlarging our territory and expanding our borders. Thank you, lord, that our blessings are being pressed down, shaken together, and running over in return. Thank you for pruning that brings more fruit. In Jesus' name amen.
