

1. What scripture passage is the sermon primarily based on?

The sermon is primarily based on 2 Timothy 1:5-10.

2. What does 2 Timothy 1:7 say about the spirit God has given us?

2 Timothy 1:7 says that God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind.

3. According to the sermon, what should we do with the spiritual gifts God has given us?

We should rekindle, nurture, and actively use our spiritual gifts rather than letting fear or neglect cause us to bury them.

4. What is the Great Commission as explained in the sermon?

The Great Commission is to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to obey everything Jesus commanded, and to do so boldly and courageously.

5. How does the sermon describe the relationship between faith and fear?

Faith and fear cannot coexist; walking by faith means trusting God fully and therefore having no room for fear.

6. What role does God's love play in overcoming fear, according to 1 John 4:18?

God's perfect love casts out fear because fear involves torment, and those who fear have not been made perfect in love.

7. What encouragement does the sermon give about facing trials and challenges?

The sermon encourages believers to trust God, walk by faith not by sight, and remember that God is with them to strengthen, help, and uphold them through all difficulties.

8. What does the sermon say about being ashamed of the gospel?

The sermon says we should not be ashamed of the gospel because it is the power of God that brings salvation, and we should boldly share it with others.

9. How does the sermon describe the purpose of salvation?

Salvation is not only to be saved from something but to be saved for something: to live a holy life, be the salt and light of the earth, do good deeds, glorify God, and make disciples.

10. What practical advice does the sermon give for overcoming fear and walking in faith?

The sermon advises replacing fearful thoughts with faith, prayer, and praise; to trust God's presence and promises; to stand on the word of God; and to let the spirit control the mind and actions rather than the flesh.
